Vladimir Putin,

I am not going to install Drivers for Love, because you will suffocate in them....

But, I explained you 'why you may NEVER talk about war anymore...'. Leave it to your colleagues.

So

KOP DICHT

The whole World already knows

'that Bush wants to keep a Republican-president in the Whitehouse after the elections'. Thus, you don't have to explain to the people 'Bush arranges Georgia'.

Build the Future, not the hatred in the Whitehouse.

I am repeating myself here 100.000s of times. Don't waste my Good powers. 'Watch God Work'.

And..

Give Rob de Wijk of HCSS - and his team - 1 week time to 'undo their mistakes'. If they don't want to admitt 'they enjoy etnonationalism terrorism', you may NOT give them a visa anymore... Or you may guide them to the Devils path. Choose your words carefully!
